

Seafield House, Seafield Street, Nairn IV12 4HN

Seafield House is in a prime location a few minutes' walk from the sea, links and town centre.

Main hall

‘It’s a large, comfortable house’

David, Ayr

Sitting room

Both the sitting and morning rooms are large, bright and airy. The TV has Sky and the sky hub in the hall gives a strong signal throughout the house.

Morning room

The morning room has maps and information about Nairn and local attractions.

Dining room

The dining room can seat eight comfortably.

The house has a full dinner service, cutlery and glassware to enjoy a formal dinner party if desired. There is also plenty of more informal plates and cutlery for everyday use.

Kitchen and laundry room

The kitchen has a double oven, small oven and microwave.

There is an extensive selection of cooking equipment and dishes, crockery, glasses and bowls.

Cleaning materials, hoover, ironing board, bags, dishwasher tablets etc are in the kitchen and in the cupboard outside the kitchen door.

The laundry room has a washing machine with powder, conditioner and drying racks.

Upstairs there is a study and office. Both rooms are ideal quiet rooms to watch something online.

Throughout the house you'll notice a lot of books covering biography, travel, art, gardening, sport, finance, science and crime fiction

.
You are welcome to read but please return to their original place.

'I enjoyed perusing your library'

Ewan, Aberdeenshire

Bedrooms

There is plenty wardrobe and drawer space in each bedroom.

Double bedroom with ensuite

The bedrooms are spacious and well appointed. Towels and bedding are all fresh and new.

Arjun, Bucks

Double bedroom

Twin bedroom

The twin room has recently been redecorated with new carpet and curtains.

Family bathroom

The family bathroom has a bath and separate shower. Soap, shower gel etc all supplied.

Gardens

Seafield has front and rear gardens. The front is planted with roses and hydrangeas. The rear garden, when the two side gates are shut, forms a safe enclosed space.

Parking

There is off street parking in front of the garage by the bins accessed from Thurlow Road at the side of the house.